ABC NEWS RADIO OFFERS SPECIAL PROGRAMMING FOR LABOR DAY HOLIDAY

ABC News Radio will offer three one-hour specials for use over the Labor Day Holiday Weekend. The programs include: "Your Money, Your Country," "ABC News Radio/Consumer Reports Back to School Survival Guide 2007," and "Enough! – A John Stossel Special."

ABC News Radio Correspondent Hilarie Barsky will host "Your Money, Your Country." The one-hour program will offer inside tips on how to keep more money in your pocket and less going to others. The program will highlight ways consumers can save money on gas, groceries and more — with simple changes to help them plan financially for the upcoming holiday spending season. "Your Money, Your Country" will also take a look at the global economy and how changes in it might affect everyday life and will look at retirement options for the young – and young at heart.

ABC News Radio teams up with Consumer Reports to offer the "Back to School Survival Guide 2007" to prepare parents for another school season. The one-hour special will take an in-depth look at everything parents need to know to send your student back to the classroom with confidence. Whether it be the vaccination checklist for the little ones or helping a college-bound senior on setting up their finances for the first time, exploring why teens may fall asleep in class or keeping kids safe from internet predators – the ABC News Radio/Consumer Reports "Back to School Survival Guide" has the information parents need to get their children back to school.

The one-hour ABC News special "Enough! – A John Stossel Special," takes a look at different situations where people draw a line and try to change the world around them. From what one man did to stop children from misbehaving in his restaurant, to Stephon Marbury's solution to high-priced sneakers for kids, ABC News Correspondent and "20/20" co-host John Stossel takes a look at what Americans are doing when they're simply fed up with a situation in "Enough!"
