

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Citadel Media Names Mike Love
Senior Director of Programming and Distribution
For Urban Platform

DALLAS (July 16, 2009) – Citadel Media announced today that Mike Love has been promoted to the position of Senior Director of Programming and Distribution for its Urban platform. In his new role, he will lead content development and affiliate relations efforts for the full portfolio of Citadel Media’s Urban products, which includes The Michael Baisden Show, The Brian McKnight Show, Big Boy’s Neighborhood and Afternoons with Doug & DeDe. Love will continue to report to Carl Anderson, Senior Vice President of Programming and Distribution for Citadel Media.

“Mike is a talented industry veteran and I’m excited about the possibilities as he takes the helm for our Urban team,” said Anderson. “He will now have responsibility for growing the affiliate base for all of our Urban shows and I look forward to the successes he will build for each of those programs and their advertisers.”

Throughout the industry, Love is known for his programming expertise with a career that spans more than 30 years. He began as an on-air personality for WDBR-FM in Springfield, Ill. Love’s management experience includes running Urban stations in key markets such as New York, Philadelphia, and St. Louis. Prior to joining Citadel Media, he served as Program Director and midday host for WWDM-FM in Columbia, S.C.

“I’m grateful for the confidence and trust the company’s leadership team has shown in me,” said Love. “Working with Michael Baisden has been such a wonderful experience and I’m anxious to collaborate with the full complement of our on-air personalities, which are collectively among the best in the industry.”
